Everybody's Talking

Sugar figurines: A confectioner from Moscow has figured out a way to steal the hearts of people who love Disney characters. Dilya Kabilova makes edible sugar figurines in the form of characters such as Rapunzel from Tangled, Jasmine from Aladdin, and Elsa from Frozen. These figurines that grace the top of cakes may look like plastic dolls, but they can be eaten! While it was her Disney series that attracted attention on social media, Kabilova also creates other fictional characters, such as Alice from Alice in Wonderland.

Pink paradise: It's a good thing Yasmin Charlotte looks good in pink, because that is the only colour this teacher from Thun, Switzerland, wears. She loved pink when she was a kid and has never outgrown it. She loves pink so much that not only does she wear only pink, but her apartment is decorated in various shades of the pastel colour. She wears pink skirts, socks, and shoes, and she even sports pink jewelry. Her closet is filled with stacks of pink sweaters and shirts, her windows are dressed in pink curtains, and her kitchen cupboards are full of pink dishes. Everyone has a favourite colour!

Dairy delight: A tourist attraction in Dresden, Germany, might take a visitor's breath away. Pfunds Molkerei is a dairy shop where people can buy cheese, yogurt, and other products made from milk. Its walls and ceilings are decorated with beautiful, hand-painted ceramic tiles created by local artists. The shop started in the late 1800s when a farmer named Paul Pfund opened up a dairy where cows were milked, and the milk was processed into various products for sale. Today, the dairy has ceased operating, but the shop is still open for patrons interested in buying dairy products.

Hiking through tunnels: A series of tunnels in the mountains of western Canada, near Hope, British Columbia, was once used by the railroad. Built in the early 1900s by the Canadian Pacific Railway, making the Kettle Valley Railroad included blasting out rock to make five tunnels. While the tunnels are no longer used for trains, hikers and bicyclists love to use the decommissioned tunnel system to enjoy the natural mountain environment. The tunnels have appeared in a couple of famous American movies: Rambo: First Blood and Far from Home: The Adventures of Yellow Dog.

Did you know?

Keeping warm: The hooded sweatshirt has been around since the 1930s, when the Champion Company in the United States manufactured the first one. It was designed to keep athletes and labourers warm and cozy in the freezing winter conditions of upstate New York.

Steak knives: Sharp knives have been around for a long time, but the modern steak knife was only introduced in the 1950s. One theory is that it evolved from a tool for opening letters.

Wake up! In Britain and Ireland, before the advent of alarm clocks, slumbering workers would be awoken by people known as "knocker uppers." Their job involved using a long pole or peashooter to knock on their clients' doors or windows, waking them up for work.

Moose cheese: There's specialty cheese, and then there's moose cheese. Because milking a moose is a slow and cautious process, moose cheese is some of the most expensive cheese in the world. It's made on a farm in Bjurholm, Sweden.

Striking gold: When two teenagers on a hike in Israel found a buried jar, they thought it contained only thin leaves. In fact, inside were 425 rare, pure gold coins dating back to the ninth century.

On the Lighter Side

What has one head, one foot, and four legs? A bed.

Customer: "These turkeys in your frozen food section seem so small. Do they get any bigger?"

Grocer: "No, they're dead."

Sign on the back of a big, slow, expensive car: "As a matter of fact, I DO own the road."

If you can stay calm while all around you is chaos, then you probably haven't understood the seriousness of the situation.

I used to be a banker, but then I lost interest.
